RE: Colin James Murtaugh
Case No. 2021-555 -

Dear Philip G Rice,

Your complaint regarding Colin James Murtaugh has been reviewed by our office. After due consideration, the facts presented do not amount to a violation of the practice act or rules that would warrant disciplinary action. Therefore, the complaint was dismissed.

The fact that the complaint was dismissed does not indicate that the matter is unimportant or not seriously considered and should not be construed as an endorsement of conduct. For action to be taken on a complaint, a determination that the allegations are a violation of the practice act or rules must be made, and there must be evidence to support the allegations. Please know that we are unable to provide any further rationale for this decision and it is not subject to appeal.

Our mission of consumer protection is taken very seriously and the complaint process relies on notification from consumers. Thank you for making us aware of the situation and your assistance throughout the process. Please let us know if you have any further questions.

For the State Board of Pharmacy,

Dmitry Kunin
Senior Program Director
Division of Professions and Occupations
