I'm a little concerned that I have not heard back from you at all. I would still like to have a face to face meeting, and I am hoping to do that some time next week. And I am hoping to have the meeting with you. When we spoke on the phone, I thought things sounded encouraging. I seem to recall, we agreed that at a minimum, you would agree to confirm that you received my email if I asked you to. I did not ask you to when I sent the rough outline, but I am asking you to now, at a minimum, send a reply email, or call, to confirm you got this email.
